Gisborne: Book of Kings (The Gisborne Saga) Prue Batten

In this final book of The Gisborne Saga, Gisborne, spymaster and valued knight of Richard Lionheart, is forced into a fierce duel in which his wife and son are thrust round the board in a brutal game of revenge.

Is it the Knights Templar who seek to avenge their own? Or is it Eleanor of Aquitaine who claims Gisborne is a traitor to England?

Or is it someone from Gisborne's own cadre?

Trust is the only commodity of any value at a time when life could end with the flight of an arrow but can Gisborne be trusted enough and will his wife and son survive his obsession?
