Run With The Wolf: A Shadow Squad Series Novel (Volume 1) D.H. Bishop

Run With The Wolf is set in 1703 Spain, as the country suffers under the War of the Spanish Succession. A group of Spanish Noblemen-with a shared secret- come together to fight for their country as the Shadow Squad. In the Caribbean Islands, a pirate called the Wolf has the waters around a small, but affluent island at his mercy; while on land, a highwayman known as the Wraith, is robbing the Island's party- goers. Fallon Fitzgerald was orphaned as a child, and raised by her unscrupulous step-brother Simon Grey. Simon owns a gentleman's club the "Queen of Clubs", a sex slave brothel where Fallon, still an innocent, is forced to work as a bar maid. One night while working, she meets the enigmatic Lord Joaquin San Carlo, and her life changes forever. Simon keeps Fallon from leaving him by threatening to use his fists on the girls at the brothel. Unfortunately, she is usually the one on the receiving end of his blows. Joaquin is determined to save Fallon from Simon, but once he frees her from her step-brother, can he save her from herself? As their lives and secrets tie them together, their passion runs hot and threatens to scorch anything in its path, including the two lovers in this swashbuckling adventure. Can they find a peaceful conclusion, or will they risk everything to save their loved ones?
