ROSSICA 22 is the second issue in 'A New Chapter', a special double release marking the Russian Market Focus at the London Book Fair, bringing the best in contemporary Russian Literature to an English speaking audience. ROSSICA 22 showcases the diversity and quality of Russian fiction: featured extracts range from the intellectual games of Evgeny Vodolazkin's quasi-academic 'research novel' Solovyov and Larionov to the hard-boiled police procedural of Alexandra Marinina's taut crime thriller The City Rate; from the nineteenth century realia of Pavel Basinsky's Escape from Paradise, his best selling life of Tolstoy, to Anna Starobinets' vivid vision of the future, The Living One. As if this were not enough, this issue also boasts new translations of the latest works by two of the established stars of the Russian literary scene - Mikhail Shishkin and Dina Rubina.
