Friendships in the Dark Phyllis Campbell

"Since birth I have been totally blind. Yet I have never felt cheated of the rich beauty the world has to give. For as long as I can remember I have reached out to the world around me, giving and taking all the good things life has to offer". These words come from an extraordinary woman with a most inspiring story to tell. In this heartwarming autobiography, Phyllis Campbell tells of her early education on her parents' Virginia farm, her education at a school for the blind, her struggle to remain independent with a career of her own, her fulfilling marriage to a sighted man, and those she met along the way.
