Hellenika: Heritage and History T. Peter Limber

A condensed history of Greece from prehistoric times to the civil war that followed World War II. 37 full color maps. Hellenika narrates a unique story of a small physical geographical location that spawned a people with unusual intelligence, energy and daring. Although it relates the history of a country called Greece, it is more the story of the Greek people and where they settled, what they did, and the centuries-long influence they had on other peoples.
