This book will teach you what you need to know to start investing in real estate, especially small apartment complexes. I immigrated to the United States from Kenya in 1991 with nothing, and did not know anything about real estate. Through application of the principles covered in this book, I have transformed myself from a village boy to an apartment investor. If you have the desire to invest in real estate, but do not have any money or knowledge to do it, take heart. This book will teach you what you need to know to start investing with confidence.
