Coloring is a magical activity, and there just aren't enough magical things left in the world. All the responsibilities and obligations of adulthood can rob our lives of magic. But, let's forget about those responsibilities and obligations for a moment ... and go back to the magic of coloring. Coloring was once considered an activity meant only for children, or as an adult, an activity shared with a child coloring in their childishly themed books. It was fun because we were doing it with a child we loved. However, adults can color for the fun of it and enjoy the magic once again. Coloring takes us back to a simpler time in our lives – the easier and happier times of childhood. Coloring gives us an enjoyable activity that we can do just for the pure joy of it. It enables us to escape for a time into a magical world of our own choosing. Zen Garden Beauty is a magical coloring experience for the soul. It is filled with beautiful and intricate one of a kind designs ready to bring inspiration and relaxation into your world. Coloring reduces stress. That's why coloring books aren't just for children anymore. The very act of coloring has proven to be healthful for the body, spirit and soul, as well as good for the brain. In Zen Garden Beauty you will discover a stunning collection of illustrations inspired by the beauty of flowers and the creatures that visit them. Each kaleidoscopic burst of inspiration will encourage you to relax and revel in a journey filled with color and imagination.
