Porsché Porscha The Pink Pig: Book 1 (PORSCHE PORSCHA THE PINK PIG) (Volume 1) Edith Lamira Odiwo

Kids are curious by nature—and curious about nature, too. Porsché Porscha the Pink Pig: Book 1 gives them a fun and exciting way to learn about the world around them by teaching them new words and interesting facts.

The first installment in a series, Porsché Porscha the Pink Pig: Book 1 introduces young readers to a playful pig named Porsché Porscha, who hates mud but loves adventure. She's a curious little creature, and her curiosity often gets her into trouble—such as when she knocks over a beehive just to see what's inside.

But as mischievous as Porsché Porscha can be, she's also smart...and plenty proud of herself. She likes to show off what she knows, especially to her best friend, Wally the Billy Goat. Wally doesn't always believe her though, which sets the stage for more surprises and opportunities to learn, both for the characters and for the reader.

A delightful didactic children's book, Porsché Porscha the Pink Pig: Book 1 is designed to help children with their evolving verbal skills by emphasizing hard-to-pronounce words and repeated alliteration.

Politeness and other values are also reinforced, when Porsché Porscha invites Wally for to dinner and some delicious blueberry pie!
