When It Raynes 2 Journee Love

The only thing that Rayne wanted was a happily ever after together with her husband and child. Instead, she is left to bury the only man she thought she would ever love and raise their only child alone. When work becomes unbearable, she quits her job as a social worker and stays home with her daughter. The quiet gets the better of her, and she decides on a whim that it's time to go back home to DC to be with her family for a while. But when she arrives, she walks right into her past with a beautiful model-type on his arm. They lock eyes and she knows then that there is no going back. After all those years apart, she falls back in the one place he has always wanted her- in his bed. She can't shake the feeling that being with this man is where she was always supposed to be. Who would have thought that the man that blew her mind all those years ago would be the one to save her life?
