Authentic Leadership: Courage in Action (Joint Publication in the Jossey-Bass Public Administration S) Robert W. Terry

Leaders and readers--and especially those who are both--have reason to be grateful for this example of authenticity in action.

--from the foreword by Harlan Cleveland

Authentic Leadership provides a practical set of tools and guides that leaders can use to enhance their everyday leadership action. Author Robert Terry contends that leadership depends on the ability to frame issues correctly as well as an ability to call forth an authentic response to these issues. This authenticity and action joined together form a sure foundation for effective leadership.
