New Park Street Pulpit, The : 3 Volumes Charles H. Spurgeon

This is a complete set of Volume 1 of the dynamic collection of classic sermons from the Prince of Preachers! Written in 1855 just five years after his conversion, these memorable messages reflect Spurgeon's considerable gifts: word pictures, pointed applications, concern for people, and a heart for God. Preachers will value these early messages as excellent models, and laypeople will enjoy them as devotional reading. Charles H. Spurgeon (1834-92) was England's best-known preacher for most of the second half of the nineteenth century. In 1854, just four years after his conversion, Spurgeon, then only 20, became pastor of London's famed New Park Street Church (the sermons of which are contained in this volume). Spurgeon frequently preached to audiences numbering more than 10,000. Spurgeon said, "I do not come into this pulpit hoping that perhaps somebody will of his own free will return to Christ. My hope lies in another quarter. I hope that my Master will lay hold of some of them and say, "You are mine, and you shall be mine. I claim you for myself." My hope arises from the freeness of grace, and not from the freedom of the will."
