Province (The Vanderhault Saga) (Volume 1) Delores Cremm

Province is a gripping story, featuring hermaphrodite characters, romance, drama and suspense. A delightful page turning experience that holds its readers captivated in every chapter uncovering shocking details of deception. 17-year-old Christine Martin discovers her adoption from an ailing parent and is lead to an exclusive gay community in Vermont. She learns her true heritage is the upper echelons of society and astonished by her royal bloodline. She embarks upon a world of vast fortune and stumbles into a cesspool of mutated genes and madness. Thinking she's the firstborn child of rich and beautiful Kathy Gilbert, Cris discovers an older sibling Antoinette, who is duel-sex and anguished by the secret of her deformity. Cris finds her soul mate, Rachel Norris, a glamorous young heir to a fashion empire, but in return for her newfound wealth and grand passion comes a valuable price—the narrow escape of her life. Christine fall victim to the bloodthirsty madness plaguing her eminent family in covering up a chilling secret behind her existence and the only person capable of saving her from a premature death is her avenging angel, the powerful, clairvoyant and gender-fluid, Bonette Vanderhault.
