Sermons on Special Days: Preaching Through the Year in the Black Church William D Watley

A treasury of sixteen powerful sermons challenging placid pew sitters to become enthusiastic followers of Christ. Uniquely contemporary and solidly based on God's Word, these messages by one of today's outstanding preachers urge Christians to put Christ first in their daily lives. According to Dr. Watley, "business as usual is no longer acceptable" for the church or its members. Emphasizing the importance of Christian responsibility, his sermons call everyone to seek God's plan and purpose for life.
