Lying, Cheating and Stealing: Using and Abusing the Corporate System for Personal Gain E. D. Everett

There are many people, successful people, who look at business with an eye not toward how they can advance company goals, increase productivity or enhance efficiency, but with an eye toward how easily they can infiltrate the halls of power, use the system to their advantage and extract from this corporate victim as much personal success as possible. This book exposes their practices for what they are.
