YELLOW CALLA LILIES is an enthralling debut novel about a woman's tailwind childhood to adult journey. At the age of four years old, the main character Olivia's biological mother dies. Thirteen years later her adopted mother also passes away. She marries the boy next door, ties a knot to life and hangs on tight to her dream of becoming a fashion model. When moving to Los Angeles, California Olivia cleverly leverages her Grammy Award winning gospel singing brother's clout to break into the industry. This gripping tale is driven by family secrets, church drama and her quest to find true love. Olivia's dream is short lived when she lands in a small town penniless. When all other options if her life appear to be exhausted she turns to God. An evocative story ending brings about an unforgettable twist where the meaning of a flower "yellow calla lily" defines her the true meaning of her life.
