Swedish Comics History Fredrik Stromberg

- Swedish comics are just now about to make it big abroad, but they have a long and intricate history — a history that goes back to (at least) the end of the 18th Century. This book chronicles the history of comics in Sweden, presenting major trends and creators, showing everything from ancient picture stories etched in stone by the Vikings to the vibrant and diverse comics culture of the 21st century. The book is in full color and includes numerous full-page comics, with translations into English.
