The national bestselling author of The V'Dan returns to her gripping military sci-fi series set in the same world as Theirs Not to Reason Why.

The First Salik War is underway, and the Alliance is losing—their newest allies must find a way to win, or everyone will be slaughtered.

Though committed to helping their V'Dan cousins, the Terrans resent how their allies treat them. The V'Dan in turn feel the Terrans are too unseasoned to act independently. And the other nations fear that ending the Salik War means starting a Human Civil War.

Even as Imperial Prince Li'eth and Ambassador Jackie MacKenzie struggle to get their peoples to cooperate, they still face an ethical dilemma: How do you stop a ruthless, advanced nation from attacking again and again without slaughtering them in turn?

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Blockade (First Salik War) can make you sense more interested to read.
