Walking in the Light of Freedom: Volume II (Expressive Art (Choral)) Rene Boyer-Alexander

The history and spirit of the enslaved African remain alive in the songs and storytelling that have been passed down through word of mouth for generations. The music of the spiritual song, plantation songs and folklore, children's songs and games, blues, jazz, gospel and freedom songs is the key to unlocking true understanding of African American culture and the role it has played in the history of America. Walking in the Light of Freedom will serve as a major resource series with its chronological history of songs, speech and rhythmic activities, stories and commentaries that have been designed to appeal to people of all ages. Volume II songs include: Casey Jones, Down By The Riverside, Hold On, I've Been Working On The Railroad, John Henry, Michael Row The Boat Ashore, Pay Me My Money Down, Wayfaring Strange, All Around the Kitchen and 18 more. For all ages.
