The Englischer's Murder (Amish Mystery and Suspense) Ruth Bawell

In the tiny village of Sutter's Field, Pennsylvania, an outsider—a blogger doing research on Amish life for a series of articles—has been found on top of a hill, bludgeoned to death. There are no footprints in the snow save her own, and no one saw it happen. Having become something of a minor celebrity in her own community, Rebecca Troyer is called upon by Charity Springer to solve this impossible crime. The last person to see the victim, twenty-two year-old Aaron Mullet, has been arrested on circumstantial evidence. He promises he didn't do it, and his friend Charity believes him—but won't say why. Rebecca is determined to prove Aaron innocent, but the cost for his freedom could also cost him his life in the community. Join the crafty Rebecca Troyer as she puts her mind to the case to root out the truth—including some surprising truths inside her own heart.
