For Catholics, Brother Lawrence is a little-known voice who lived and taught how to abide in Christ through everyday situations. Men and women who work in business can learn how to practice the presence of Christ. Those who stay at home can walk in the Spirit, even when they are fulfilling mundane tasks. Brother Lawrence (1611-1691) was a monk who was not especially talented in everyday affairs. He was not an intellectual. He simply was a man of faith who pleased God in simple ways. Drawing from his classic devotional on practicing the presence of God, Walking with the Father includes modernized versions of Brother Lawrence's writings, letters written about his teaching from those who knew him, and a brief biography. Join a host of Christians who throughout the ages have grown to know the Lord in a deeper way through Brother Lawrence's insights into walking with God moment by moment!
