DADDY, WILL YOU MISS ME? Wendy McCormick

My Daddy's going to work, far away in Africa -- without me.

To a child waiting for his father to return from a trip, four weeks can seem like forever. To help ease the pain of separation, a father and son create rituals for each passing day. From blowing kisses to one another at night to marking off days on the calendar, these simple activities help them remain close in their hearts while they are far apart. Together with soft, tender illustrations, this poignant and heartwarming story shows that whether you're across the globe or just across town, the love between a father and child spans any distance.
