Amber and Shayna, lovers for the past two years, but now the time has come to make some major life decisions. Amber, still a child to her father, is forced to be engaged to a man she grew up with just because of his aspirations to become the next pastor. Amber's father plays 'god' while Phillip blindly follows the course that is set out for the both of them. Where does that leave Shayna, the one who loves and adores her unconditionally? The only one who cares for her without judgement. The woman with whom she is free to be herself, the only person with whom she has such liberty! What will Amber do? Will she allow 'god' to force her in a loveless marriage or will she finally face her truth, grow up, and go against her father's wishes for a change?
