The Paradoxes of Water (Salt Modern Poets) Rod Moran

Covering more than thirty years of writing, this landmark publication shows the depth and range of Rod Moran's poetic life. Well-travelled, tough-minded and unwavering in its moral vision, Moran's poetry is filled with concern for historical, social and political identity, as well as a delight in and concern for the natural and man-made worlds. He ensures for us the serious responsibility of being here.
