Frank Gehry is quickly emerging as the most inventive and celebrated architect of our time. Based in California, Gehry has shattered conventional notions by incorporating such unorthodox materials as chain-link and corrugated metal into some of his most famous buildings like the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, Spain. Focusing on twelve of Gehry's most stunning projects, this calendar celebrates the unique vision and extraordinary accomplishments of this world-renowned architect. Each featured image is accompanied by an extended caption as well as a second view of the structure. Produced with the Guggenheim Museum, New York, this calendar follows the acclaimed exhibition of Gehry's work that ran at the museum in the summer of 2001.
