His people have been living and thriving secretly within human society for decades. Now Steve Jacobs has to go to Nazran, a city long considered to be the deadliest in Russia, in order to rescue the love of his life. Although taken by the Russian Vampire Collective in order to keep him from interfering with their plans, Steve knows of Dimitri's penchant for betrayal and can't sit still to wait for her safe return. Instead, along with his usual collection of unusual allies, Steve goes on the offensive only to find himself on a collision course with a mysterious, and extraordinarily capable, stranger with mystical ties to Rasputin and harboring a common interest in bringing down the people that took his love.
