The Gift of Grandparenting: A celebration of the delights of having grandchildren Cheryl Saban
Grandmothers and grandfathers love to talk about their grandchildren, and why not? In this beautifully presented little book, grandparents and grandchildren from all around the globe reflect on the everyday delights of the magical bond that's shared by grandparent and grandchild. They wax lyrical about this "special relationship" and everything that it encompasses, from the mundane to the marvelous—from breaking the rules to sharing triumphs, from giving advice to singing silly songs. These words of experience are teamed with sayings from great writers and philosophers through the ages. This treasure trove of wisdom and humor is a heartfelt tribute to the joy of grandparenting.
